

XM Radio should be allowed to broadcast local channels. Why should cable TV be able to broadcast local stations and not XM? Let the consumer choose where they want to get their content from.